

Bryant Coombs

Finance Director

Meet Bryant Coombs— West Ridge Finance Director.

Bryant has worked in finance and accounting for over 12 years, and has experience creating monthly quarterly and yearly financial statements. He has created detailed budget and analysis statements that show how a company is doing vs forecasts. Bryant has also worked with multiple tax and auditing professionals to ensure taxes are filed correctly, and audits are completed timely and accurately each year.

Bryant chose to come to work at West Ridge Academy from the recommendation of a colleague that has supported the West Ridge for many years. He looked into and asked questions about what West Ridge Academy was and is. His research found that they are an organization that helps children and their families through some difficult times in their lives. He liked what West Ridge was doing and he wanted to be a part of helping them in their mission.

Bryant and his beautiful wife are the parents of of four wonderful children—three boys and one girl. Bryant is a voracious reader and loves Science Fiction and Historical Fiction. He loves doing any outdoor activities, especially hiking and camping.
