

Meet Rachel Noble, LCSW— West Ridge Academy Director of Outpatient Services.

Rachel Noble is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) and currently acts as the Director of Outpatient Services at West Ridge Academy. Rachel loves working with adolescents and, in addition to outpatient counseling, has experience working in residential treatment and crisis work. Her professional specialties include mood disorders, family counseling, and Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT). Rachel loves the change she sees in youth who participate in services at West Ridge Academy. When she's not at work, you can find Rachel taking walks with her husband and daughter, creating online photo books, and planning family parties or dream vacations.
